Description

Did it ever strike you, dear reader, that the same word which yields sweetest consolation to the true believer effectually extinguishes every ray of hope for the unbeliever, and leaves him nothing but darkness and utter despair? That word heads this little paper.

To make this the more distinct let us ask two questions which, from the lips of the Lord Jesus Christ, are both answered by this very word.

1. Can the man or woman who dies in unbelief ever be saved? Mark the solemn answer - NEVER!
2. Can the one who has been born again of the Spirit of God ever be lost? NEVER!

Now if this weighty little word were but the utterance of feeble man, to quote it might be of little moment. For example, the apostle Peter used it on two important occasions in his history, but
