Description

This coloring book is about a little boy named Tognia, who lived in India, and his journey to salvation. "Clang, clang, clang went the bell! All forty-five boys jumped up! They washed their faces and dressed in a hurry. Soon each one was sitting in front of a bowl of steaming mush. It looked good, so Tognia started to eat. Then he looked around. No one else was eating..." This coloring book provides an excellent way to present the gospel to young souls in need.
