Description

Man of God, written by F.W. Grant, is a compilation of three lectures that the writer gave many years ago. In these lectures, based primarily upon chapter 17 of 1 Kings, F. W Grant illustrates the character of the man of God in the life and experiences of Elijah the Tishbite. Mr. Grant emphasizes that positionally, we can all be called a man of God but to be practically so, the resurrected Christ needs to be our object. May the Lord help each of us to be practically what we are positionally.
