Description

Twelve kings of Israel reigned in 2 Kings. Sadly, all were bad; they did evil in the sight of the Lord. The Lord sent His prophets to warn them of their evil deeds, but they failed to turn to Him. He eventually removed them from His sight, they were taken from their own land to Assyria.

The reign of fifteen kings and one queen over Judah is mentioned. Five were good kings; they sought to please the Lord by doing the things which were right in His eyes. The majority were bad kings, they did evil in the sight of the Lord. Judah was carried away to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

God sees all things. "Whatever a man sows, that he will also reap" (Gal. 6:7).

In this book, we will see many instances of the faithfulness of God despite the unfaithfulness of His people.
