Description

John was a fisherman. He was in the ship with James, his brother, mending their nets when the Lord Jesus called them. They left their father with the hired servants in the ship and followed the Lord Jesus.

The apostle John was a spiritual father; he had a heart for the children of God. Although an elderly man when he wrote, he had the Lord Jesus before him, whose glory he had contemplated.

Eugene Vedder looks at the apostle and the things he wrote to glorify the Lord Jesus. You will find this book to be profitable reading. It is encouraging and edifying as it exalts the Person and work of the Lord Jesus. Enjoy!
