Description

This short book on Daniel by PJ Pell was originally a collection of addresses delivered by the author to various assemblies. These “notes” have since been collected and preserved for us in this book form. The reader will find this concise work on Daniel to be very helpful since it is easy to read. Each chapter is concluded with a series of questions, to check on the reader’s comprehension of the topic covered. This approach may be quite helpful when working with groups of young people.

72 Pages - Softcover - Author: P. J. Pell
